

International Desk

Helping people and businesses prosper, through simple, personal and fair banking

 Santander

Santander Group, a major player with a powerful business model

The Santander Group is a leading financial group with a prominent presence in 10 major markets

-  Largest Market Capitalization in the Eurozone
-  Total on-Balance sheet assets +1.3 trillion
-  More than 117 million customers
-  Over 12,900 branches
-  One of the largest financial groups in Europe and Latin America

Santander Group, an example of International expansion

The International Desk network is your company's partner when establishing abroad:

- Going abroad is the best bet for your company's future and your country's progress and development
- Santander sets the standards for settling overseas, leveraging on the strength of our retail and commercial banks in 15 countries at the reach of its customers
- Santander has developed the International Desk to better serve companies with international activity in these countries
- The International Desk team keeps you informed of the most relevant local aspects helping your decision making regarding foreign investments and trade

Public and Private Partnerships

To help maximize the growth, we partner with Public and Private Sector to drive sustainable development in our markets. These partnerships allows governments, financial institutions and business entities to align their goals for the benefit of companies and society in general.

Through its local and international relationships, the International Desk team helps you access sources of advice and information.

This network of valuable contacts offers a local specialized and exclusive service.

The International Desk Service

What is International Desk?

International Desk will be by your side when establishing and investing abroad, helping you reach your goals and growth through...

Financial & Non-financial

...with access to Santander's complete product offer, including specific products and services for aligned to your foreign needs,

Our Team

...a dedicated team of professionals with in-depth experience, hosting you in the country you are expanding into with a tailor made customer care,

Third Party Suppliers

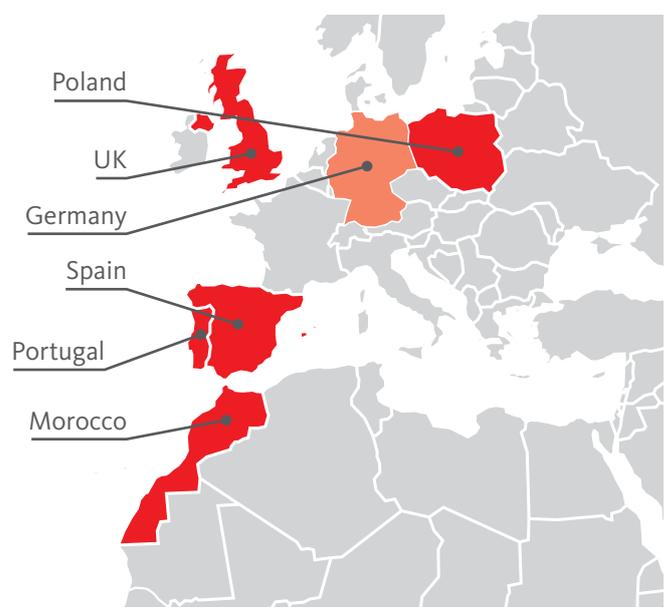

...providing a high-value, third-party network in each country: law firms, government agencies, customs authority, etc.

The International Desk Network

A dedicated team in 15 countries...

...speaks and understands the local language and culture...

...with in-depth international experience

Commercial banking service offering

- Complete
- Selective

Simple | Personal | Fair